

INTERNATIONAL HERITAGE SYMPOSIUM AND EXHIBITION

Project Investigator	:	Dr. U.T. Vijay, Chief Scientific Officer
Collaborating agency	:	KSCST, IIT Delhi
Budget	:	Rs. 20.00 lakhs
Funded Agency	:	DST, GoI
Duration	:	April 2018 to March 2020

Objectives:

- To showcase the technologies developed in IDH-Hampi programme
- To launch virtual gallery of IDH-Hampi
- To Release the book on IDH-Hampi
- To exhibit the 3D Models and 3D Replicas of Monuments of Hampi

Progress:

- International heritage symposium and exhibition organised by KSCST in association with IIT, Delhi and DST, GoI at National Museum, New Delhi on 15-16 January 2020.
- The symposium was inaugurated by Sri. Prahlad Patel, Union Minister of Culture and Tourism, GoI along with the Secretary, DST, GoI and the Director, IIT, Delhi
- Exhibition of 3D models and 3D replicas of few monuments of Hampi and other Indian world heritage monuments was demonstrated using advanced technologies such as AR, VR and MR.
- Exhibition was arranged in Special Gallery of National Museum, Delhi and kept open for public from 15-01-2020 to 15-02-2020. Book on IDH technologies contributed by various project teams of IDH-Hampi programme was released during the symposium cum exhibition.
- Participated and moderated one of the panel sessions during the symposium cum exhibition

Release of Book on IDH-Hampi by Sri.Prahlad Patel, Union Minister of Culture and Tourism

Exhibition on 3D Models and 3D Replicas of Vittala temple